

Wealth Protect

Bare Trust declaration form

Before you complete this form, we would recommend that you speak to a professional adviser. They will be able to help you decide whether a trust is right for you and, if so, which type of trust would suit your needs best.

You can use this form to put your Wealth Protect insurance into a bare trust:

Once you, and the trustees that you choose, have signed this form:

- all benefits payable under Wealth Protect will be gifted to the beneficiaries
- you cannot change the beneficiaries listed in the Declaration of Trust section, or add to them.

What is a bare trust?

A bare trust is a trust where the beneficiaries are entitled to the income and capital of the trust fund in the shares determined by the settlor.

Putting Wealth Protect insurance in trust is not right for everyone. Before completing this form, it is important to discuss your needs with your financial or legal adviser.

This trust is only suitable for Wealth Protect.

Trusts and taxation

Normally, life insurance that has been put into trust is not included in your estate so there should be no inheritance tax to pay. It may not be necessary, therefore, to register this trust with Her Majesty's Revenue & Customs (HMRC). If this trust is part of a wider gifting programme, there may be some benefits to registering this trust with HMRC. Your adviser will be able to tell you if you should register your trust with HMRC.

The laws for gifts and trusts may change in the future. AIG Life cannot be held responsible for any information given or any changes in tax provisions or legislation that may affect the policies within the trusts or the tax treatment of either the policies or the provisions of the trust or the rules applying to gifts for inheritance tax planning purposes.

Section A: Definitions

The words in this form which begin with a capital letter have particular meanings which are set out in the table below.

Word	Definition
Additional Trustee	The person appointed by the Settlor to be a trustee of the Trust as listed in Section C - The Declaration of Trust or such other person or persons who may be appointed as a trustee of the Trust
Minor	A person considered to be under the age of consent – currently age 18 in England and Wales, and age 16 in Scotland
Policy	The life insurance contract (or “cover”) that you are putting into this Trust and which is identified in Section C - The Declaration of Trust
Beneficiary	A person who may receive a benefit from this Trust and is listed as such in Section C - The Declaration of Trust
Settlor	The person who sets up the Trust and is identified as the “Settlor” in Section C - The Declaration of Trust
Trust	The Trust that is set up pursuant to this Bare Trust Declaration Form incorporating this Section A - Definitions, Section B - The Trust Provisions, Section C - The Declaration of Trust and any amendments to these provisions
Trustees	The Settlor and the Additional Trustees
Trust Fund	The Policy, all the title, benefits, rights and interest of the Policy, all monies received or payable under the Policy and all property and monies added thereto by way of further settlement, accumulation of income or otherwise
Trust Period	The lifetime of the Trust which shall be up to 125 years

Section B: The Trust Provisions

We have used headings to help you understand and find particular clauses. These headings do not form part of the Trust Provisions and do not affect their meaning.

References to people involved in setting up and running the Trust in the singular can mean one or more persons. So, for example, ‘Settlor’ can mean one Settlor or the Settlers. If the reference is in the plural, it can also mean one person.

Wherever the Trust refers to an English legal term for any action or remedy, judicial proceeding or legal document, legal status, court official or any legal concept and the Trust is subject to the jurisdiction of a country that is not England, then if the context requires, that English legal term shall be construed to be the relevant legal term that most closely approximates it in the relevant legal system.

1 Declaration of Trust The Settlor hereby assigns to the Trustees the Policy and hereby declares that the Trust Fund shall be held upon the trusts and subject to the powers and provisions declared and contained in this Trust.
2 Power of appointment The Trustees shall hold the income and capital of the Trust Fund upon trust for the benefit of the Beneficiaries for the Trust Period absolutely in the shares specified in Section C - The Declaration of Trust.
3 Payment of income and capital (a) The income (if any) of the share of a Beneficiary who is a Minor and is entitled to benefit from the Trust shall have his or her share of the proceeds and income (if any) held in trust on their behalf until such a time that they are no longer a Minor. (b) Where a Beneficiary is a Minor, the Trustees may pay the full or part of the income of the monies held under the Trust for the benefit of the Minor in line with the Settlor’s wishes and for the benefit of the Beneficiary and in accordance with clause 10 of these Trust provisions. Such monies may only be used towards the maintenance, education or health of the Beneficiary who is a Minor. Section 32 of the Trustee Act 1925 shall apply to this trust as if the words “one half of” were omitted from section 32(a) (1).

4 Settlor and Excluded Person unable to benefit

No power or discretion conferred on the Trustees by this Trust or by law, either expressed or implied, may be exercised so as to cause or permit any part of the capital or income of the Trust to become payable in any way for the benefit of the Settlor.

5 Irrevocability

This declaration of Trust shall be irrevocable.

6 Number of Trustees and power to appoint new Trustees

- (a) There must be at least two Trustees appointed at any given time one of which must be a person who is not the Settlor.
- (b) The Settlor shall be vested with the power to appoint new Trustees during his life or so long as the Settlor is able to execute this power.
- (c) The Settlor hereby appoints the Additional Trustees to act with the Settlor and in line with the powers conferred upon them in this Trust. The Additional Trustees shall acknowledge their position and responsibilities bestowed on them by this Trust or any subsequent revisions of the Trust.

7 Power to remove Trustees and retirement of Trustees

- (a) The Settlor shall for so long as he is able to execute this power, have the power to remove any Trustee without giving reasons for doing so and without the need for other Trustees to agree or otherwise, provided there are at least two Trustees remaining after the removal has been completed.
- (b) A Trustee can be removed by the other Trustees where the Trustee who is being discharged of their duty cannot be found provided that:
 - (i) none of the other Trustees have been in contact with the Trustee being discharged within the preceding twelve month period;
 - (ii) the other Trustees (one or more) have made reasonable efforts to make contact with the Trustee to be discharged; and
 - (iii) the discharge is made by deed executed by all of the continuing Trustees being at least two in number including at least one who is not the Settlor and a declaration is made in such deed that all reasonable efforts were made to contact the Trustee who cannot be found and that the continuing Trustees have written to the missing Trustee's last known address without success and that they have attempted to contact the missing Trustee through all other addresses given to them during their investigation.
- (c) A Trustee may retire provided that following the Trustee's retirement, there are at least two continuing Trustees. A Trustee's retirement shall take effect from the date of the notice of retirement sent in writing to the continuing Trustees.

8 Power to invest

Where monies are held by the Trustees for a period of time until distribution of the proceeds is possible, the Trustees shall have the power to invest such monies in an investment that will not be classified as a wasting asset and shall be easily accessible to enable prompt distribution when appropriate. The Trustees shall be entitled to move such monies as appropriate in order to make the investment.

9 Trust income

Any income accrued in relation to the Trust shall be paid or added to the Trust Fund for the benefit of the Beneficiaries.

10 Distribution of assets

- (a) The benefits from the Trust Fund shall be paid to a Beneficiary in accordance with the provision of distribution as set out in Section C - The Declaration of Trust. Where the Beneficiary is a Minor, the benefits may be paid to the parent, legal guardian or person with the legal capacity acting on behalf of the Minor who shall take receipt of the monies to be held for the benefit of the intended Beneficiary who is a Minor and may provide a receipt in full discharge of the Trustees' duty.
- (b) The benefits from the Trust Fund may be paid to a treasurer or other person acting in an official capacity approved by the charity which has been identified as the recipient of such benefits.
- (c) The Trustees shall make a full discharge of monies payable to such person(s) under any policy forming part of the Trust. The Trustees shall pay the benefits after deducting any reasonable charges outlined in clause 11 of these Trust Provisions.

11 Power to charge

- (a) A Trustee but not the Settlor engaged in a profession or business shall be entitled to charge and be paid all professional and other charges connected with their duty to act as Trustee and distribute the benefits. This charge shall be no greater than the Trustee's normal professional charges and may include expenses incurred through administration, professional opinion or peripheral expenses. Where a Trustee is not in a profession or business they shall be entitled to charge reasonable costs incurred in carrying out their Trustee duties.
- (b) A Trustee but not the Settlor shall be entitled to receive commission payments for professional and other services connected with their duty to act as Trustee and distribute the benefits. This charge shall be no greater than the Trustee's normal professional charges and may include expenses incurred through administration, professional opinion or peripheral expenses. Where a Trustee is not in a profession or business they shall be entitled to receive reasonable commission payments in carrying out their Trustee duties.
- (c) A corporate body acting as Trustee shall be entitled to charge fees in accordance with their normal professional charges for Trustee work. Such terms may be reviewed and agreed with the Settlor from time to time.

12 Power of appropriation

The Trustees may appropriate any part of the Trust Fund in or towards satisfaction of the interest of a Beneficiary and may for such purposes place such value on any property as they think fit.

13 Power to vary administrative provisions

The Trustees may amend or add to the administrative provisions of this Trust provided such amendment or addition is by deed.

14 Power to delegate

The Trustees may, acting jointly, delegate any power conferred on them by this Trust to any person who provides professional services in relation to the delegated power and such person shall exercise the delegated power on such terms as they think fit. The restrictions on delegation in sections 12 to 15 of the Trustee Act 2000 shall not apply.

15 Liability for breach of Trust

The liability of a Trustee for breaches of the Trust shall be limited to breaches arising from the Trustee's own fraud, wilful misconduct or gross negligence except in the case of a Trustee acting in a professional capacity. The Trustees shall not be liable for the default of a person acting under a delegated power pursuant to clause 14 of these Trust Provisions provided they took reasonable care in the selection and supervision of such person.

16 No duty to consult

The Trustees are under no duty to consult the Beneficiaries or accept instructions from any Beneficiaries.

17 Law

This Trust shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of England and Wales.
